Poisoner of Scotland Yard's Chief Being Trailed

GOV. HARDWICK IS THREATENED IN LETTER SENT THROUGH MAILED

Georgia Executive, Away From Capital, Is Not Aware of Its Receipt.

SECRETARY ASKS INQUIRY

Family Servant Was Injured by May Day Bomb Sent in 1918.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 11.—The wholesale mailing of infernal machines to prominent Americans for explosion on May Day, 1918, was recalled here today when postal authorities were asked to investigate a threat of death received through the mail by Governor Hardwick.

Hardwick has left the city and had not been informed of receipt of the letter. His secretary asked an investigation, due to the fact that Governor Hardwick, in 1918, a recently retired United States Senator, was a recipient of one of the May Day bombs. A family servant, in opening that package, was maimed for life.

The letter turned over to postal inspectors today threatened Governor Hardwick with death before November 20 unless Frank Dupre, a convicted murderer, was saved from execution. Dupre was hanged in September. The letter was signed "Blackie."

EX-GOBLIN PUNCHES KU KLUX ATTORNEY

Clarke Out, and Simmons In, Starts Wide Plans for Reorganization.

ATLANTA, Nov. 11.—Edward Young Clarke has relinquished his post as Imperial Kluge and acting Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and Wizard William Joseph Simmons has stepped back into control. Clarke resigned two months ago, effective yesterday.

Simmons was greeted ten minutes after he took over the Invisible Empire by a process server for a suit filed in superior court by Harry B.
Terrell, a former Klan Goblin, demanding his removal on the ground of incompetency. Hearing is set for November 20.

Clarke issued no statement as he quit other than a word that he was glad to be relieved of the responsibility. Simmons said he would fight Terrell's suit, and would shortly reorganize the Klan departments.

Paul Etheridge, Imperial Attorney for the Klan, was at the courthouse when Terrell filed his suit. He tried to upbraid Terrell for filing it.
Terrell slapped his face several times and left him in the clerk's office, dazed, according to witnesses.

The Klan Klondike, called by Simmons to discuss reorganization plans, convened at the Imperial Palace yesterday. A petition from some Atlanta women to be recognized as a Klan auxiliary was the first subject discussed. Action was deferred.

Them Be Taken—Somerset
Co. May Get Inquiry.

By International News Service.
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov.

solution of the mystery surrounding the murder of the Rev. Dr. Edward W. Hall, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, and the beautiful choir singer, Mrs. James Mills, Deputy Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott has cabled a request to Supreme Justice Charles W. Parker in Havana that some other judge be allowed to charge the grand jury, but no reply had been received today.

May Fingerprint Her.

would be asked on Monday to permit her fingerprints to be taken, so they could be compared with fingerprints found upon Hall's

Accuse D. C. Man OF CONSPIRACY

Local Detective Is Arrested With Virginia Merchant in Atlantic City.

By International News Service.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 11.— William V. Sinclair, cigar merchant, of Rosslyn, Va., and Steven A. Armstrong, detective, Washington, D. C., were arraigned today in Atlantic City before Magistrate Joseph S. Taxson, charged with conspiracy.

The complaint was brought by William I. Fisher, an Atlantic City detective, who alleges that Sinclair is trying to prevent him and his wife from receiving a share in a $500,000 estate left by Mrs. Fisher's aunt.

Fisher was arrested last week for alleged non-support of Mrs. Mattie Fisher. When brought into court the woman declared she had signed the warrant against her husband under duress and that while they had been living apart by mutual consent, he had been supporting her. The case was dismissed, but before Mrs. Fisher left the court, the magistrate asked who had influenced her and the woman accused Sinclair and Armstrong.

Attorneys held a conference today regarding the conspiracy charge, which the plaintiff said he would not press because his wife did not wish to drag family troubles into court.

Girls Frighten Cows Owned By Bachelor

WEST SOUND,
Wash., Nov. 11.

ON a small island in Sound there is a herd of dairy cows terrified at the sight of women. The cattle are owned by Carl E. Troy, a bachelor, who has always employed Japanese helpers for housework and farm duties.

Many of the younger cows have never seen a woman, according to Troy, because lady visitors are rare as comets on his island farm.

They are not welcome, both because of the timidity of Troy and because they frighten the cows until it is a week before the milk supply gets back to normal.

HEIRESS GUARDIAN TO FACE CHARGES

Dorothy Gordon Was Charged Rent While Restrained in Asylum.

By International News Service.
BOSTON, Nov. 11.—Those responsible for sending Dorothy Gordon, twenty-year-old heiress to $100,000, to the McLean Insane by her guardian, William F. Jardine, on the eve of her elopement nah, Ga.

On the witness stand in the suit brought by the girl's uncle, John D. Gardiner, of Baldwin, Long Island, Jardine stated that before taking the girl to the hospital he had consulted a lawyer and a doctor.

He also admitted that since the girl has been in the asylum he has charged her $50 rent for a room in his home and $4,500 a year as guardian. He also received $5,000 a year as head of the Gordon Supply Company, in which his ward's family is invested.

GILMER CASE GOES TO COURT MARTIAL

Judge Advocate Urges Conviction on All Six Counts of Hazing.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 11.—The Naval Court Martial which has been trying the case of Midship-man John P. Gilmer Jr., of San Diego, Cal., charged with hazing, is now considering the case, all testimony having been presented and arguments completed.

Midshipman Gilmer, a first classman, is charged with hazing four different Midshipmen. Six incidents were specified.

The argument for the prosecution was made by Judge Advocate Joseph A. Murphy, while Major Henry Leonard addressed the court in behalf of the accused.

A verdict of guilty on all six of the specifications was urged by the Judge Advocate. Three of these allege the improper questioning of Midshipmen James G. Bonifant, one that Gilmer had compelled Bonifant and three others to take part in a pie race, and the others that he had compelled Fourth Classman Carl Diederman and Grant Ethelredge to do physical exercises. The Judge Advocate claimed that all of these were established by the evidence.

Major Leonard argued that the evidence failed to establish material points as to all the specifications. He also urged that the questioning was either proper instruction of a junior or mere fun, without malice or improper motive, and that the pie race was not only not ordered by Gilmer, but was also enjoyed by the participants.

He denied that the requirement of physical exercises was fixed on Gilmer by the evidence, calling attention to the fact that witnesses had said that Gilmer was not in the room when the stunts were done.

VICTIM SINKS SLOWLY FROM ARSENIC SENT HIM IN CANDY

Doctors Admit Condition of Sir William Horwood Is Critical.

ARREST EXPECTED SOON

Second Attempt Made on Life of Noted Detective in Two Weeks.

By International News Service.
LONDON, Nov. 11.—Sir William Horwood, chief of Scotland Yard, who was mysteriously poisoned Thursday by candy sent to him through the mails, was sinking slowly today and the doctors feared they could not save his life. His condition was admitted to be critical.

Arrest Expected Soon.

The best detectives in Europe are on the trail of the poisoner, and it was expected that an arrest would be made soon.

Scotland Yard has been conducting a vigorous campaign against race track crooks, and one theory was that this clique was responsible for the poisoning.

The chief's secretary on entering Horwood's office on Thursday found the police head in a state of collapse. He summoned the chief police surgeon and other doctors, who spent the night administering oxygen.

He rallied slightly and his improved condition enabled the doctors to move him to St. Thomas Hospital, across the river.

The Daily News says that it is in a position to state that arsenic was used and it was administered soon after midday Thursday.

A similar but unsuccessful attempt was made upon Horwood two weeks ago. This was thwarted by the assistant commissioner. The sender could not be traced at the time. A second box of candy was received Thursday.

Sir William himself ate two pieces and his secretary ate one and threw the rest of the box away on account of the candy's unpleasant taste.

On account of the poisoning of Horwood, police officials today warned all public men to eat no sweetmeats unless they know their origin. Officials said they feared a widespread plot to poison public officials with candies sent through the mails.

Scotland Yard officials said they believed that the attempt upon the life of Sir William Horwood was the work of a lunatic. It was learned from other sources, however, that a certain person has been under suspicion since Friday morning and that capture of this person was only prevented by premature publication of the news that Sir William had been poisoned.
